When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

THE GOVERNOR BETTER.

Cheering News From the Sick Man.

Mr. Eugene Howell, Secretary of State, returned from the bedside of the Governor yesterday. He said:

"The Governor held out both hands to me when I entered, and said he was glad to see a Nevada man. He talked as if he thought his friends had deserted him, as so few had called. I explained that his friends had not called because there was a general impression that strict orders had been issued that no one should call.

"Every day crowds of Nevada people call at the hotel asking after his health. He is lots better and will make a live of it. Yesterday a congratulatory dispatch reached him from Carson's citizens and it had a wonderful cheering effect. It was better than medicine.

"On Saturday Dr. Hirschfelder was relieved and Mr. and Mrs. Dr. C., who are specialists, took charge. Since then he has had no sinking spells and less pain. He is 50 per cent better and gaining ground all the time.

"Mr. Hanford sent for Miss Brambilla who is assisting Mrs. Jones as a nurse. He is making a grand rally now and if he continues to gain will certainly pull through. All he needs now is bracing up."

Secretary of State Howell received the following yesterday afternoon at 4:30:

Governor holding his own, nicely changed rooms.

W. T. HANFORD.

Give the Names.

Two prominent deacons of the Presbyterian church had a disgraceful scrap on the post office corner yesterday morning. We have hitherto refrained from mentioning names of parties engaged in these pugilistic exhibitions on the street, but we give everybody fair notice from this time on that the names of a party engaging in street fights and appearing in this paper. If you are into a street fight hereafter, do not ask us to omit your name.—Index, tonight.

A newspaper never gains strength by suppressing news. Each subscriber takes a part in the expectation of getting all the local news. The people who want their names suppressed are generally non patrons of the paper and why should a publisher favor non patrons at the expense of those who support him.

Heading This Way.

Olga Nethersole is reported heading this way with Carmen.

The Music and Drama says of her: Olga Nethersole's Carmen was a novelty in the sense that it was startling to the patrons of the Empire, who have had some experiences with "hot stuff" in dramatic productions. Miss Nethersole's kisses are the talk of the town, and her leading-man, Earnest Leicester, upon whom she bestows them, exhibits a nasty little bite on his hand, inflicted by the tumultuous Olga in one of her scenes with him. She makes Carmen a more wicked and brazen wanton than usual and her embraces of Jose are infernally suggestive.

She will draw a good house here even if the Opera House association don't advertise in the APPEAL.

Late Literary News.

No one ever thought of introducing so expensive a feature as lithographic color work in the days when the leading magazines sold for $4 a year and 35 cents a copy. But times change, and the magazines change with them. It has remained for the Cosmopolitan, sold at one dollar a year, to put in an extensive lithographic plant capable of printing 320,000 pages per day (one color). The January issue presents as a front piece a water-color drawing by Eric Pape, illustrating the last story by Robert Louis Stevenson, which has probably never been excelled even in the pages of the finest dollar French periodicals.

She Read the "Appeal."

A few days ago a lady who constantly reads the APPEAL noticed the advertisement of Gee Hing. She went there to purchase some Japanese goods and while in the store a Chinaman came in and asked her to purchase a Chinese lottery ticket. She did so and dismissed the matter from her mind. Next day the Chinaman called at her house and handed her $245. She attributes her good luck to the reading of the advertisement in the APPEAL.

The Catholic Parish.

It is not yet decided who will take Father Cline's place in the Catholic church of this city. Father Cline's successor however will be selected by the Catholic Bishop at Sacramento. Father Cline has taken charge of the churches at Grass Valley and Nevada City.

His genial face will be much missed in this city where he made many friends during his stay here.

News From DeLamar.

Correspondence from DeLamar to the Pioche Record, January 10th, says the bullion coach left with a batch of the "pure stuff" on Tuesday morning.

A large, heavy iron stock for the new boilers going in at the company mill was raised this morning.

Ernest Dupont, an employee of the mill, is dangerously ill with the fever. His brother, who is employed at the Walker Brothers' bank at Salt Lake, is expected to arrive tonight.

The "Wastec Seeress" told a DeLamarite not long ago, that the richest mine in Ferguson district hadn't been discovered yet. This will stimulate a lot of recent locators to work, perhaps to find it.

The work of laying the April Fool company's water-pipe was finished in town today. Water, however, will not be turned in for about two weeks, as it will take that length of time to get the boilers and pump in place at the springs.

The work of setting up cyanide tanks and the work of getting them under cover goes on with all possible speed at the DeLamar mill. The tanks are prepared at Salt Lake, shipped in sections and riveted together here. After considerable discussion and investigation as to the merits of stamping rolls and Sturges and Griffin mills for pulverizing ores, the company has decided to put in Griffins and a lot are on the road. The wear on the machinery is very great, on account of the exceeding hardness of the ore. The Griffins on the whole are reported to give the best results, and one machine, when working well, will pulverize upward of a ton an hour.

In Justice to Mr. Doyle.

Chas. McGlashen writes the APPEAL from Truckee that the coupling of Mr. Paul M. Doyle's name with the burning of Pat McNulty does a great injustice as he had nothing to do with it.

The APPEAL knows none of the parties charged with complicity in the affair but feels assured that upon so good an authority as Mr. McGlashen that Mr. Doyle is an innocent party. This correction is cheerfully made in response to Mr. Doyle.

A faithful railroader told a story at the Beach hotel this morning about the killing of 250 sheep by dogs at Wadsworth last night. He said that Charles Kaiser of Churchill county sold 100 head of sheep to him. They, the San Francisco butcher, and they were corralled at Wadsworth preparatory to shipment. Last night a lot of town dogs got into the corral and had a merry time. This morning 250 sheep carcasses were found and the Wadsworth market is glutted with fresh mutton.—Silver State.

Beware of the gusher. He is a bad element in the sentiment we call friendship. If he puts his hand on your shoulder and swears that without your regard life would be a blank, copper him dead straight. True, earnest friendship is not effusive. A man who really likes another does not blow about it. Always give the sentimental man the go-by. Shake the gusher dead and cold.—Bodie Index.

Carson people are exercised to know how so much brand-new silver coin got into circulation. It is intimated that somebody has been taking another little whack at the Mint vaults.—Lundy Index.

If Jim Town-end continues to talk this way he will lose the Opera House advertising.

Sarah Siddons, the tragedy queen of England, is to have a monument over her grave in old Paddington Church-yard, now a public garden. The statue will represent the greatest actress second, attired in Grecian dress. It will be unveiled by Henry Irving when he returns to England.

The old boodle combine in this city were never in such desperate straits as now. The ring is fighting for its very existence. Once down and laid out it will never rise again and taxpayers will no longer be compelled to pay tribute to it in order to exist in Carson.

CHEAP CUSTOM WORK A DECEPTION.

A style of tailoring is rapidly gaining headway which is but an imposition upon the consumer and a detriment to the workman. The cheap custom work or what is called "special order work," is a shrewd dodge for the purpose of deceiving the customer into the belief that he is obtaining custom work at ready made prices. The real worth of custom work lies in the exactness of the fit, and the thoroughness in which it is made. Cheap custom work is therefore inferior to ready made work.

Large concerns, some also engaged in ready made work have grown up of late and depend for patronage upon retail stores, and have numerous agents scattered everywhere soliciting orders and gain trade because of the strikingly cheap prices offered for goods made to order. As a rule these agents seldom obtain an order twice from the same person.

It is about time that this scheme was exposed to the people and ABE COHN of the EMPORIUM shows up the fraud. If you want clothes that fit and are tried on as often as is necessary call at the EMPORIUM Court House Building, Carson City, Nevada.
